

Portugal comes to Aria

Press Release

Two.Six presents new Products on Aria shop – London

We are pleased to announce three new products designed by international designers for TWO.SIX. Buddy chair - designed by Cédric Bernard, Mr.G armchair - designed by Evgeniy Kondratev and Caterina desk - designed by Davide-Giulio Aquini.

The launch of this products will happen during London Design Festival, in Aria Shop.

Aria and TWO.SIX design will embark on a creative journey. This unique collaboration between two eclectic, innovative brands, will showcase the best of high-quality design, past, present and future. Together they will lead the vibrancy, passion and colour of the Portuguese spirit to London.

You are invited to participate in this colorful partnership with us, with an official launch taking place at 6.30pm on Tuesday 20th September.

ARIA

Aria has been on the cutting edge of interior design and fashion for over two decades. Aria stocks an eclectic range of contemporary home furnishings and hand-selected lifestyle accessories, and conducts special collaborations with local independent designers.

TWO.SIX

TWO.SIX is a Portuguese furniture brand and design editor, that favors simple lines, hot colors and clever details. Think touchable stripes of lacquer and quirky fabric accents, combined with handsome natural wood, of course. Aesthetically rich, challenging for its creativity, TWO.SIX collection is made of versatile objects that naturally coexist in eclectic environments.
